FORUM'S GLOBAL CONTEXT

Global geopolitical tensions have escalated in recent years, creating an urgent need to promote dialogue and understanding between young people from different nations. Challenges such as climate crisis, global pandemics, inequality and radicalization, as well as the resurgence of high-intensity conflicts, call for increased international cooperation, placing youth empowerment at the center of concerns. The International Youth Peace Forum therefore underlines the urgent need to mobilize the world's youth to contribute to the resolution of global challenges.

PRESENTATION

International Youth Forum For Peace

The International Youth Peace Forum - Paris 2024 aims to bring together young people from around the world to discuss, share ideas and develop innovative solutions to promote global peace. Through debates, interactive workshops and networking sessions, the forum will seek to inspire young people to play an active role in building a peaceful and sustainable future. For this inaugural edition, the International Youth Forum for Peace will focus on the theme: "Youth United for Peace: Responding to Global Tensions and Combating inequality".

FORUM GOALS

The forum will pursue the following objectives:

- Mechanisms to facilitate intercultural and interfaith dialogue among young people in crisis zones.
- Encouraging mutual understanding and respect for differences, in line with Human Rights.
- Identification by young people of global challenges to peace - Proposal of innovative solutions.
- Inspiring governments and international institutions to promote civic engagement and social participation among young people.
- Creation of a global network of young leaders committed to peace.

DATES AND LOCATIONS

The International Youth Peace Forum will be held in May 2024 (exact date to be confirmed) in Paris, under the Framework of 2024 Olympics. This city, historically committed to diplomacy and offering a neutral environment conducive to international discussions, is the ideal place to celebrate the spirit of the 2024 Olympic Games, one of peace and brotherhood.

WORK TOPICS

The forum will focus on the central theme, with the following sub-themes:

- The impact of economic inequality on global conflict.
- Education as a means of preventing conflict and promoting peace.
- The climate emergency as a catalyst for conflict and migration.
- Respect for international law, social, economic and human rights, and sustainable development in the construction of peaceful societies.
- Global solutions: the role and participation of women, minorities and other groups at risk of discrimination.
- The role of social media in spreading hatred and conflict. Youth views on cybersecurity, fake news and the online fight against appeals and movements practicing political violence.
- Youth civic engagement.
- Sport as peace mediator.
